PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Nestled in a quiet neighborhood in downtown Steamboat, this single-family, 4 bedroom home is perfect for those wanting a local sense of community. Surrounded by beautiful aspen and floral landscaping, the home also offers great views of Howelsen Hill. Inside the home, an open floor plan upstairs allows for conversation between the kitchen, living room, and dining room. A unique and beautiful part of the home, the dining room is offset with high ceilings, numerous windows, and a large sliding glass door that accesses a sunny patio and wrap around porch. To accent the windows in the dining room, a window seat curls around one wall and creates a perfect area for sun loving plants. Downstairs the home offers a second kitchen as well as an office/den. The large garage is definitely a perk to this property as it allows extra storage with its well thought out design for toys and work areas.
