PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Located in one of Steamboat's growing commercial areas sits a pristine 0.99 acre parcel ready and waiting to build. With existing plans by Tom Dover of Dover Construction and Development, outlining 12 live/work units, this Copper Ridge Business Park investment opportunity won't last long. This lot sits in a quiet location within the business park and borders open space, which is often hard to find when planning for live/work development. The parcel has great access for commercial entities and sits on a slightly higher elevation than the rest of the park, which affords views that might otherwise be obstructed. For buyers looking at commercially zoned land with great potential, this is a must see!
